Intelligent Security Solutions

Established in 2010, Security Management International (SMI) is a global security consulting and intelligence provider, headquartered in Tysons Corner, Virginia. We offer senior executives over a dozen professional courses throughout the year.

SMI's four most popular open-enrollment courses include the CARVER Target Analysis and Vulnerability Assessment Training Course™, the Counter-Espionage for Business Travelers Course, the Global Security Consulting University™, and the Hostile Travel Environment Training Course. These selective and intellectually rigorous programs are for executives seeking effective methods to secure their critical infrastructure and intellectual property, mitigate threats, and influence/enhance their organization's situational awareness.

Attendees discover advanced principles of strategic decision-making and innovative security management techniques, which will provide an ongoing Return on Investment (ROI) for organizations with operations both domestically and abroad. SMI's highly-experienced instructors have lived and worked across the world and regularly apply their extensive knowledge and practical experience to the curriculum.
